Edible Insects - Arnold van Huis 2013

Edible insects have always been a part of human diets, but in some societies there remains a degree of disdain and disgust for their consumption. Insects offer a significant opportunity to merge traditional knowledge and modern science to improve human food security worldwide. This publication describes the contribution of insects to food security and examines future prospects for raising insects at a commercial scale to improve food and feed production, diversify diets, and support livelihoods in both developing and developed countries. Edible insects are a promising alternative to the conventional production of meat, either for direct human consumption or for indirect use as feedstock. This publication will boost awareness of the many valuable roles that insects play in sustaining nature and human life, and it will stimulate debate on the expansion of the use of insects as food and feed.

Ron-ron, ça tourne ! - Gérard Chevalier 2015-10-09

La détective à quatre pattes est sur la piste d'un crime dans le monde du cinéma. Dans cette nouvelle collection, qui s'écarte totalement de son style habituel, Gérard Chevalier propose une belle originalité : son héroïne et narratrice ! Catia, minette quimpéroise « surdouée », mène l'enquête en assistant son maître, journaliste d'investigation, dans ses recherches. Elle maîtrise le langage humain dans ses nuances les plus intimes et emploie parfois des termes fleuris pour juger les comportements des « bipèdes ». Rose me fait tourner en bourrique, un comble pour une chatte géniale comme moi ! Rose est le bébé de mes bipèdes, Catherine et Erwan, j'assure sa garde et son éducation. Aussi quand le commissaire Yvon, notre ami, vient me solliciter pour participer à une enquête sur le décès d'une actrice en plein tournage, c'est l'occasion pour moi de prendre des vacances. Je découvre l'équipe du film à la sortie de sa garde à vue. Quel monde de tordus ! Enfin... pas tous. Et puis je fais la connaissance d'Hector, un chien Saint-Hubert exceptionnel. Il est le fidèle compagnon un peu décrépi du comte Guerrouane de Pennec, vivant au manoir de Kerpennadec. Un vieux noble avec de la thune ne peut pas être complètement mauvais... L'auteur signe un ouvrage à la fois tendre et très drôle, laissant la part belle au suspense, qui ravira les amateurs de romans policiers, de Bretagne et les amoureux des chats... Un remède à « la crise », une pause entre les soucis. EXTRAIT — Il y a un tournage de film en ce moment au manoir de Kerpennadec. Hier matin les acteurs principaux, Soizic Le Bihan et Loïc Le Gall, jouaient une scène d'amour qui se terminait par un suicide. Soizic Le Bihan se tirait une balle dans la tête... Le problème est que la balle était réelle ! Elle s'est fait exploser le crâne ! — En pleine prise de vue ? — Non, on l'a retrouvée au maquillage, écroulée sur la table. Elle a dû vouloir répéter son geste. — Tu as des photos de la scène de crime ? Tapé-je. — Bien sûr Catia, me répond Yvon directement. Tu connais ça aussi ! Bravo ! Je suis toujours bluffé par ton immense savoir, ma chère Catia. Ah, que ça fait du bien ! Je me sens revivre soudainement. C'est un peu comme si on donnait du foie gras à un bénéficiaire du RMI. CE QU'EN PENSE LA CRITIQUE Un très bon roman, idéal pour se détendre, mêlant policier, cinéma, félin et surtout beaucoup d'humour ! - Iris, Babelio À PROPOS DE L'AUTEUR À la suite d'une longue carrière au cinéma et à la télévision commencée à 30 ans Gérard Chevalier s'est lancé dans la littérature avec une affinité pour le genre policier et à suspense. Auteur de romans policiers et de thrillers, il s'est installé en

Bretagne, sa terre d'inspiration inépuisable, terre qu'il affectionne tout particulièrement et à laquelle il rend un vibrant hommage à travers ses écrits. Son premier ouvrage, Ici finit la terre paru en 2009, a été largement salué par la critique et a remporté de nombreux prix littéraires. L'ombre de la brume, paru en 2010, La magie des nuages en 2011, Vague scélérate en 2013, Miaou, bordel ! et Ron-ron, ça tourne ! rencontrent également un véritable succès mettant une nouvelle fois la Bretagne à l'honneur.

The Dark Side of Translation - Federico Italiano

We tend to consider translation as something good, virtuous and bright, but it can also function as an instrument of concealment, silencing and misdirection—as something that darkens and obscures. Propaganda, misinformation, narratives of trauma and imagery of the enemy—to mention just a few of the negative phenomena that shape our lives—show patterns of communication in which translation either functions as a weapon or constitutes a space of conflict. But what does this dark side of translation look like? How does it work? Ground-breaking in its theoretical conception and pioneering in its thematic approach, this book unites international scholars from a range of disciplines including philosophy, translation studies, literary theory, ecocriticism, game studies, history and political science. With examples that illustrate complex theoretical and philosophical issues, this book also has a major focus on the translational dimension of ecology and climate change. Transdisciplinary and topical, this book is key reading for researchers, scholars and advanced students of translation studies, literature and related areas.

The rise of neo-nationalism is having a profound and troubling impact on leading national universities and the societies they serve. This is the first comparative study of how today's right-wing populist movements and authoritarian governments are threatening higher education. Universities have long been at the forefront of both national development and global integration. But the political and policy world in which they operate is undergoing a transition, one that is reflective of a significant change in domestic politics and international relations: a populist turn inward among a key group of nation-states, often led by demagogues, that includes China and Hong Kong, Turkey, Hungary, Russia, Brazil, the United Kingdom, and the United States. In many parts of the world, the COVID-19 pandemic provided an opportunity for populists and autocrats to further consolidate their power. Within right-wing political ecosystems, universities, in effect, offer the proverbial canary in the coal mine—a clear window into the extent of civil liberties and the political environment and trajectory of nation-states. In Neo-nationalism and Universities, John Aubrey Douglass provides the first significant examination of the rise of neo-nationalism and its impact on the missions, activities, behaviors, and productivity of leading national universities. Douglass presents a major comparative exploration of the role of national politics and norms in shaping the role of universities in nation-states—and vice versa. He also explores when universities are societal leaders or followers: When they are agents of social and economic change, or simply agents reinforcing and supporting an existing social and political order. In a series of case studies, Douglass and contributors examine troubling trends that threaten the societal role of universities, including attacks on civil liberties, free speech, and the validity of science; the firing and jailing of academics; anti-immigrant rhetoric; and restrictions on visas with consequences for the mobility of academic talent. The book also offers recommendations to preserve the autonomy and academic freedom of universities and their constituents. Neo-nationalism and Universities is written for a broad public readership interested and concerned about the rise of nationalist movements, illiberal democracies, and autocratic leaders. The Gentle Answer to the Muslim Accusation of Biblical Falsification - Gordon

D. Nickel 2014-12-23

The Gentle Answer is a scholarly response to a claim that many Muslims have been making in relation to non-Muslims for more than 1200 years: that the text of the Bible is corrupt and/or falsified. The Muslim claim affects both Jews and Christians and has been a source of discouragement and bad feeling for non-Muslims living in Muslim-majority societies. At the same time, Muslims claim that their scripture, the Qur'an, is exactly the same in every detail since the time it was first recited. Both claims continue to be made boldly in the age of Internet websites and YouTube. Academic scholarship on the Bible and the Qur'an supports neither of the Muslim claims, but since critical writing on the Bible is more abundant and has a longer history, Muslim polemicists have selectively used Western biblical criticism in an attempt to support the traditional Muslim accusation of biblical falsification. Only comparatively recently have the techniques used in biblical criticism been applied to the Qur'an. The Gentle Answer responds to the Muslim claims by placing the Bible and the Qur'an on a level scholarly playing field to show that the scholarly questions about the Qur'an are at least as challenging as questions about the Bible. Since many of the scholarly questions are similar, Muslims and non-Muslims have good reason to work together at the answers. In the meantime, Muslims and non-Muslims have the opportunity to enter a friendly faith conversation in which the contents of the scriptures themselves are carefully considered and discussed. The Gentle Answer responds in such a way as to invite conversation rather than to perpetuate the acrimony that has often accompanied discussion of religious differences. Respect for the accuser means taking issues of truth seriously. It means doing one's best to thoroughly understand the accusation. It also means commending one's own faith with an understanding of the accuser's worldview. Differences in faith between Muslims and non-Muslims show no sign of going away in the years to come. But in a world of considerable political tension and violence, Muslims and non-Muslims must seize the freedom to openly discuss their differences together while nurturing mutual respect and committing to peaceful coexistence.

My Rock 'n' Roll Friend - Tracey Thorn
2021-04-01

'Entertaining, affectionate and righteous'
Guardian 'Says so much about being a woman'
Cosey Fanni Tutti In 1983, backstage at the Lyceum in London, Tracey Thorn and Lindy Morrison first met. Tracey's music career was just beginning, while Lindy, drummer for The Go-Betweens, was ten years her senior. They became confidantes, comrades and best friends, a relationship cemented by gossip and feminism, books and gigs and rock 'n' roll love affairs. Thorn takes stock of thirty-seven years of friendship, teasing out the details of connection and affection between two women who seem to be either complete opposites or mirror images of each other. She asks what people see, who does the looking, and ultimately who writes women out of - and back into - history.

L'auto-motivation - Reinhold Stritzelberger
2015-03-04

Et vous, où en est votre motivation personnelle ? Avez-vous la niaque ou traînez-vous les pieds dès le matin en vous levant ? Celui qui n'a pas d'objectifs dans la vie, travaillera toujours pour ceux des autres ! Stop à la morosité ! Ce petit guide vous aide à (re)trouver la petite étincelle qui va mettre le feu à votre vie quotidienne et professionnelle. Comment ? En vous permettant de développer une pensée créatrice, riche de projets et d'objectifs stimulants à atteindre. Il vous montre comment : • Vous entraîner à fixer et atteindre des buts, pour en tirer plaisir et satisfaction, • Échapper au piège de la commodité qui vous empêche de sortir de votre zone de confort limitante, • Repousser les scénarios négatifs et aller au bout de vos actions, • Exploiter à fond ce qui est vraiment important pour vous. Vous avez aimé la pensée positive ? Vous aimerez encore plus l'auto-motivation ! En effet, la pensée positive met de bonne humeur et donne une vision certes optimiste de l'existence, mais elle n'est pas ciblée, alors que l'auto-motivation est une pensée soutenue par des objectifs à atteindre et dédiée à l'action. Si vous continuez dans votre routine, voyez où cela vous mène : à la stagnation ! Certes il est sécurisant de rester confiné dans votre train-train quotidien, votre zone de confort, sauf que cette routine est pauvre et sans perspectives, elle finit par vous miner et vous décourager. Vous méritez mieux que cela. L'énergie va où l'attention va, aussi ce Miniguide vous permet de : • Vous concentrer sur vos objectifs, les moyens pour les atteindre, les obstacles à surmonter, • Vous tenir à votre to-do-list, ne pas remettre au lendemain, canaliser et utiliser vos talents, • Sortir des sentiers battus, vous ouvrir à une réflexion personnelle et engagée, • Entraîner votre appétit pour le risque et les prises de décisions, indispensables pour progresser. La motivation trouve sa source dans le bonheur, le plaisir à réaliser une activité. « Ah, ce fut une bonne journée ! » Voilà ce que l'auteur aimerait vous entendre dire chaque jour, que vous ayez relevé des petits ou des grands défis, pourvu que vous ayez avancé et que cela génère chez vous bonne humeur et envie de poursuivre dans la voie de l'épanouissement ! A propos de l'auteur Diplômé en Administration des Affaires (MBA), Reinhold Stritzelberger est formateur et coach. En tant que conférencier, il anime avec passion des ateliers en entreprises et des émissions de télé sur la motivation personnelle qui ont beaucoup de succès en Allemagne. Radical Pedagogies - Beatriz Colomina

Experiments in architectural education in the post-World War II era that challenged and transformed architectural discourse and practice. In the decades after World War II, new forms of learning transformed architectural education. These radical experiments sought to upend disciplinary foundations and conventional assumptions about the nature of architecture as much as they challenged modernist and colonial norms, decentered building, imagined new roles for the architect, and envisioned participatory forms of practice. Although many of the experimental programs were subsequently abandoned, terminated, or assimilated, they nevertheless helped shape and in some sense define architectural discourse and practice. This book explores and documents these radical pedagogies and efforts to defy architecture's status quo. The experiments include the adaptation of Bauhaus pedagogy as a means of "unlearning" under the conditions of decolonization in Africa; a movement to design for "every body," including the disabled, by architecture students and faculty at the University of California, Berkeley; the founding of a support network for women interested in the built environment, regardless of their academic backgrounds; and a design studio in the USSR that offered an alternative to the widespread functionalist approach in Soviet design. Viewed through their dissolution and afterlife as well as through their founding stories, these projects from the last century raise provocative questions about architecture's role in the new century.

Birth of a Bridge - Maylis de Kerangal

Coca, Southern California. A small town on a wild river, at the margins of the red-rocked desert and the forest where the last of the state's Native Americans still make their home. When Boa, the charismatic new mayor, decides to put Coca on the map, he plans a monumental new project: a six-lane bridge, two hundred metres high, designed and destined to catapult the city into the third millennium. Workers from across the globe flock to California: to earn a living, to escape their pasts, to bear witness to man's mastery of nature. But the project's majestic scope has no regard for the legacy of this ancient land, and within this monochrome Babel festers a very human cocktail of fears and passions. At once timeless and yet exquisitely of its moment, Maylis De Kerangal's multi-award-winning novel follows its broad cast of construction workers and architects, diggers and dreamers, as they navigate both the intricacies of their project and the depths of the human heart. Imaginaire de l'espace dans le cinéma québécois

- Andrée Fortin 2015-02-11T00:00:00-05:00
La façon de concevoir l'espace et les déplacements ne se révèle pas uniquement en scrutant des plans et des cartes : cela exige de saisir l'imaginaire sous-jacent, la représentation de ce qu'est et devrait être la ville, la banlieue ou la campagne, les identités spatiales et l'appropriation de l'espace, dans leur dimension de mémoire et de projet. Les oeuvres de création et en particulier le cinéma de fiction présentent un imaginaire, une vision de l'espace habité et habitable. L'imaginaire de l'espace dans le cinéma québécois est ici exploré dans un itinéraire partant des espaces habités (la ville, la banlieue et la campagne), pour aboutir aux espaces identitaires en passant par les espaces de déplacement et de circulation, la place publique et l'espace public.

Clinical psychologist Serena Wieder Ph.D. redefines the building blocks of development and the challenges that derail a child's functioning and learning. Based on decades of experience, Wieder and Wachs guide therapists and parents in interventions for use at home, school and therapy offices involving affect based Floortime approaches and other problem-solving

The Pact - Karina Halle 2014

*The Pact is a full-length, standalone "friends to lovers" contemporary adult romance*It all started with a pinky swear...Linden McGregor is tall, rugged, and gunslinger handsome; a helicopter pilot with a Scottish brogue and charm to spare. He's also one of Stephanie Robson's best friends and has fit into that box for as long as she's known him.Beautiful, funny and an ambitious businesswoman (with one hell of an ass), Stephanie Robson is one of Linden McGregor's best friends and has fit into that box for as long as he's known her.But some relationships can't be boxed, can't be classified, can't be tamed. Back in their mid-twenties and tired of the competitive hit-or-miss dating scene of San Francisco, Steph and Linden made a pact to marry each other if neither one of them were in a serious relationship by the time they hit thirty. It sounded like fun and games at the time but as the years to thirty tick past and lovers come and go out of their lives, the pact becomes larger than life. Sex is inevitable. Friendships are tested. Hearts are on the line. The pact is about to change everything. Note: due to the dirty talk and sexy times, The Pact is not meant for anyone under the age of 18.

Creature from Reelfoot Lake - James L.

Dickerson 1912-08-03

"The Creature from Reelfoot Lake: The Merman Who Loved Women" is a horror novel that is reminiscent of the classic cinemas of the 1950s such as "Creature from the Black Lagoon" and "The Blob." But with one major difference: The Reelfoot creature is half-human, a merman who has been on an obsessive search for his birth mother that has lasted more than 200 years. At the heart of the story are three former college roommates—two male, one female—who all have childhood and relationship issues that dominate their lives. The roommates—and their issues—converge at Reelfoot Lake, Tennessee, where the creature is inflicting a reign of terror that makes it difficult for the ex-roommates to locate a treasure that has been buried since the New Madrid earthquake of 1811. The protagonist is female, and the plot is complicated by the fact that she is being stalked by the third roommate, her ex-husband, at the same time that she is stalked by the creature. It is a sophisticated, multi-layered psychological thriller in which all the main characters are forced to deal with their individual issues. The creature cannot speak, but he has a distinctive voice that will touch the hearts of readers as he searches for the meaning of his tormented life. Graphene Oxide - Wei Gao 2015-05-28

Wilderness Son - Marlette Kielczewski

A true son of the wilderness, Floyd Kielczewski, hunter, fisherman, trapper, white water expert, and licensed Ontario guide was born and raised in the unsettled wilderness of Northern Ontario. For Floyd and his family, living off the land was a matter of survival. They hunted their meat, grew their own garden, and built their own log cabins. What they couldn't make, grow, or hunt, they bought with the sale of fur from animals they trapped. Formal education was not an option for Floyd or his siblings as they were expected to join their father in securing a living. At the age of seven, Floyd's father gave him his first gun, which was a lever action single shot .22. In his lifetime, Floyd has killed 238 deer, 65 moose, and 68 bear.
